

Name: _____

Nouns Used as Direct Objects

A noun or pronoun used as a direct object tells who or what is receiving the action of the verb.

Let's look at an example:

The little boy sang a song.

In this sentence, the verb shows the action "sang."

The noun "song" is the direct object because it tells what the boy sang.

In each sentences below, underline the verb that shows the action and circle the direct object that receives the action.

1. The teacher wrote a letter.
2. The students completed their homework.
3. The chef cooked the meal.
4. The worker painted the garage.
5. The electrician repaired the outlet.
6. The teacher taught an algebra lesson.
7. The baker baked some bread.
8. The musician played his trumpet.
9. The dog dug a hole.
10. The farmer grew some corn.

